Dear Friends,

It is my pleasure to announce the 2007 program of the annual Richmond Festival of Music. We have a wonderful series of musical treats in store for you this year, highlighted by four concerts tracing important influences on musical history – the powerful beauty of the Romantic era, the important roots of folk traditions, the damage of artistic censorship, and the musical epicenter of Vienna.. The superb line-up of musicians performing this year is our best ever, all sensational artists from international prize winners to local favorites. In addition, we will present two free, family friendly "Ear Project" concerts, and feature a recital by participants in our adult chamber music workshop. As always, I look forward to greeting you at a spectacular Festival.
